

THE EVENING BULLETIN

ROSSER & McCARTHY, Publishers and Proprietors, To Whom Address All Communications

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1885.

His face was flushed, fire in his eye.
The hair stood straight up on his mug; Investigation showed that he Was warning on the "later bug."

His Bath County jail begins August and continues four days.

Tax blackberry crop in Nicholas County is said to be a failure this year.

This Louisville exposition opens August 15th and closes October 15th.

The stock of the Lexington Telephone Company is quoted at $110 a share.

Two State Board of Equalization is in session at Frankfort. Judge E. Whitaker, who is a member, is present.

This commission of Mr. A. C. Respass, as postmaster of Mayfield, was signed by the President on the 9th instant.

It is reported to-day that Mr. Respass has decided to remove the postoffice to the Burgess Block, on Sutton street.

The receipts from the concert given by the members of the Colored Plymouth Baptist Church amounted to $50, after paying the expenses incurred.

The ice cream and strawberry festival announced to be held at the Chester Church, has been postponed until Friday and Saturday nights of next week.

JOSEPH CARR, baggage master of the Kentucky Central, at Paris, while going to his home, on the night of the 9th inst., was shot in the leg by some person unknown.

Mrs. MALONEY, an old citizen, died yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Kate Denault, on the Lexington turnpike, in the suburbs of this city.

Mr. THOMAS F. STEPHENS, a good citizen of East Mayfield, died yesterday afternoon after an illness of twenty-seven days. He leaves a wife and ten children who are all healthy.

Mrs. E. H. TUBMAN, one of the wealthiest and at the same time one of the most charitable women in America, died at Augusta, Ga., on the 9th inst., aged about 90 years. The deceased was born near Fitzgerald, Ky.

MORRIS FRITZGERALD, of Paris, has been appointed express messenger on the Mayfield division of the Kentucky Central in place of C. C. Brashear, who died from injuries received by falling from his car, near Carlisle, not long ago.

It is said that blue grass seed gathered too early is unfit for use and will not be bought by the dealers. There is much complaint that seed gathered before it was fairly ripe last year did not germinate.
The dealers in Bourbon County give this caution to farmers.

To Mason County Farmers.
Do not be persuaded into buying a cheap, common four-horse sheet iron range from traveling peddlers, when you can buy a six-horse wrought iron range of national reputation for less at the same price. BLATTNER & POWERS, 110 & 112 22 and 24 Second St.

The steamer Handy No. 2 yesterday had her flag at half-mast in memory of Captain Mark Penney, the builder twelve years ago of the first steamer Hurdy, who died at Rome, Ohio, on the 8th inst., at the age of seventy years. His remains were brought down by the Handy yesterday and buried at Manchester.

YESTERDAY afternoon, about 5 o'clock, Johnston Lewis, colored, who is employed at the coal elevators to dump the loaded cars on the pile of coal in the yard, in unhooking the rope attached to one of the cars, slipped and fell under the wheels. The car passed over his right leg, near the hip, badly bruising him, but, fortunately, breaking no bones.

AMANDA LEWIS, colored, charged with grand larceny, had her examining trial before Magistrate Vint and Grant on Wednesday the 10th inst., and was held to bail in the sum of $100 to answer the charge at the next term of the Circuit Court. Nancy Stewart, colored, was the principal witness for the prosecution.
She claims that "Mandy" stole $10 from her. In default of bail "Mandy" was jailed.

As will be seen by a Washington telegram printed elsewhere the opposition to Colonel Baldwin's controlling the distribution of Democratic patronage here has assumed a decided shape. He fought the Democratic party last fall for all he was worth, and the opinion is now generally held that it would be rank injustice to the Democracy to allow him to name men to fill Democratic offices. The road ahead of him promises to be a rocky one.

W. H. SMITH, who was charged by little Eddie Harrison with ill-treating him, has furnished the BULLETIN the following certificates from his neighbors:

June 10, 1885.
We, the undersigned, are willing to testify in any court we belong to neighbors of W. H.
Smith, who is well known to all of us, and who has lived with Mr. Smith. We saw no inhuman treatment to the child. When he was arrested for disobedience there was no tobacco stick used, nothing but a switch.
John A. Wadsworth, my brother-in-law, resides with Mr. Smith, strikes Eddie Harrison with a tobacco stick or anything else he thinks proper. MARTHA WASH.
J. Jones, an ex-slave, who lives with Harrison mistreated white at Mr. Smith's.
I am a neighbor, never saw said Smith mistreat Eddie Harrison in any way.
WILLIAM D. RAY
I am a neighbor, never saw said Smith mistreat Eddie Harrison in any way. A. A. RAY.

He Was Too Sedentary.
The minister lost his health by being too quiet. He would spend hours and hours in his study, pouring over books and sermons, and neglecting bodily exercise. Liver became torpid; stomach grew weary; bowels acted irregularly; nerves yielded to prostration; minister was a gloomy failure until Brown's Iron Bitters revived him. Rev. Mr. Zehring, of Colorado, Pa., says: "I was paralyzed in my right side. The use of Brown's Iron Bitters enabled me to walk." Hundreds of other ministers testify to its worth.

This state of one thousand dollars won by the James H. Pion Company, of this city, in the contest with B. F.
Avery & Sons, of Louisville, and generously donated to the charities of New Orleans, we see by the Picayune, has been applied as follows:

Jewish Widows' and Orphan's Home... $100 Protestant Episcopal Children's Home... 100 Seventh Street Protestant Orphan's Home... 100
New Orleans Female Orphan Asylum... 100 Charity Hospital... 100 Little Children of the Poor... 100 St. Vincent Infant Orphan Asylum... 100
New Orleans Female Orphan Asylum... 100
St. Mary's Orphan Boys' Home... 100 Total... $1,000

GENERAL ROBINSON has re-appointed Mr. Walter B. Plaster, the present incumbent of the Deputy Collector's office in this city, to serve indefinitely. We have heard that, it is the intention of General Robinson, before making any permanent appointments here, to come to Mayfield and consult with the Democrats on the subject with a view to securing competent men and such as will be acceptable to his party friends. In such a course he will be warmly seconded by all who wish his administration of the Collector's office a success.

Dr. TRACY's temperance meetings at Lancaster continue to draw large audiences at the court house each evening.
Tuesday night 125 persons signed the pledge and donned the blue ribbon.

PERSONALS.
Mr. J. C. MORRISON, of Charleston, W.
Va., is in the city.

Dr. Evans will preside over the new female college at Lancaster, Ky.

Miss Jane R. Parke, we are pleased to hear, has sufficiently recovered from her injuries to walk about the house with crutches, and will soon be able to walk without support of any kind. She expects to take charge of her school again next session.

A Bad Boy's Bright Idea.
(New York Times.)

Some carpenters at work on a building near the foot of Broadway gave an old woman a piece of old seven-foot pine siding for fire wood. The board was too long to carry home, and the old woman had no implement with which to break it up. A bright-faced boy of eight years stood by and saw the trouble the old woman was in. He considered a moment, and then picked up a paving stone and carried it out into the middle of the street. Then he put one end of the board on the stone and waited until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving
stone and carried it out into the
middle of the street. Then he put one
end of the board on the stone and waited
until a bright-faced boy of eight years
stood by and saw the trouble the old
woman was in. He considered a mo-
ment, and then picked up a paving

IN THE FIELD OF LABOR.

DOINGS AMONG UNIONS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

The Hat Makers' and Finishers' Association—Poorly Paid Workmen—Investigating Female Labor—Yonkers Pickets Discharged—Notes.

New York, June 11.—The board of directors of the Hat makers' and Hat finishers' National association will meet in this city on the 10th inst. at 1 o'clock p. m. The finishers will meet at 923 Bowers and the makers at 10 Stanton streets, so as to be within call of each other. Conference and joint meetings will be necessary. These meetings are partly called for the purpose of getting up a label or trade-mark to be used on hats made by union or "fair" men.

The Seventeenth National convention of the United States Wool-hat finishers' association will be held at the Tremont house, this city. C. Outman Osborne, president, and Archibald M. Taylor, secretary, of Mattawoman, N. Y. Delegates will be present from Portland, Me.; Haverhill, Methuen, Newburyport and Andover, Mass.; Danbury and Bridgeport, Conn.; Mattawoman, Midston and Yonkers, N. Y., and Reading, Pa.

A mass meeting of the Hebrew Tinsmiths' union was held at 101 Hester street, this city. The strike in Block's factory, Hester street, was discussed. Those present were all young men. The strike was against a reduction in wages. They had all worked by the piece. The best paid wages was on each boiler, of which three men could make a gross a day, for which they received $5 to $6, according to the size. One of the poorest jobs was making collanders, and one good workman could make, by hard work, a gross a day, for which he was paid $1.50. Greenhorns employed at Castle Garden had worked for $2.50 a week. Although in Germany they may have been considered first-rate workmen. They had to learn the trade anew, because of machinery.

Deputy Commissioner Keen, of the bureau of labor statistics of New York, is at present in this city. He says the commissioner, who has returned from his European tour, has decided to investigate the extent and condition of female labor in New York city, also the number of trade unions and their membership, together with a history of strikes during the year. This is an ambitious program, and will require a considerable amount of energy and perseverance to successfully carry out. Mr. Keen is consulting with those interested in woman wage-earners as to the best plan to adopt to arrive at the most satisfactory results. The deputy says also that the report of the bureau for last year, which was placed in the hands of Wood & Parsons, the state printer, on January 10, is not half completed. It looks as if it will be in the hands of the public no time in September.

Yonkers Pickets Discharged.

YONKERS, N. Y., June 11.—The city court room at Yonkers was packed again by the striking carpet workers and their friends. The crowd extended far into the court yard and eagerly awaited the decision of Judge Peute. The prosecuting attorney, Lawyer Saunders, had analyzed the ruling of Judge Mills, in the Levine baloon corpse case, and gracefully conceded that the prisoners could not be held. Thereupon Judge Peute discharged them. The decision was received with cheers. This closes one phase of the proceedings. Mr. John Brennan will begin suits against the municipality and the city board for false imprisonment in every instance. He says he has good cases.

To Sign the Scale.

YONKERS, N. Y., June 11.—It is just reported from Brown, Bonnel & Co. that they will sign the scale and resume operations on Monday morning, providing they can get the mill ready. Workmen are busy at the furnace, which indicates that the report is not without foundation. Members of the firm would neither deny nor affirm the report. It is thought here that the iron workers' strike is at an end. Brown, Bonnel & Co.'s mill is about the largest in Eastern Ohio, and employs nearly one thousand men, and the signing of the scale by them is regarded as a great victory for the workmen.

Live Labor Notes.

The conductors and brakemen of the Central division of the Grand Trunk line have decided that the reduction of 5 per cent. is extended for six months from May 1.

The Preston No. 2 colliery, at Girardville, Pa., after a suspension of a week caused by a mine fire, resumed work, giving employment to 350 men and boys.

The North Ashland, Pa. colliery, at which place a cave-in occurred a few days ago, who has resumed operations. Four hundred men and boys are employed.

The locomotive engineers on the Consolidated road, running into New Haven, Conn., are dissatisfied with the pay they are receiving, and the brotherhood officers will be called upon to settle the difficulty.

The weavers of Frankford, Philadelphia, have organized a co-operative company for the purpose of producing textiles in cotton, wool and silk. The capital stock is fixed at $30,000, in $50 shares, at $50 each.

The News-Week's unions throughout the country are about electing delegates to the National News-Week's convention, which will meet at Philadelphia on July 14.

The machinists of New York who do not belong to a trade union are requested to send their names and addresses to C. L. U., 303 Bowers.

John Phillips, secretary of the New York State Workingmen's assembly, is preparing a directory of the trade and labor unions of the state, with the names and addresses of their secretaries. He solicits organizations to send him the information he is seeking to 477 Park avenue, Brooklyn.

The Illinois senate passed a bill providing that all incorporated towns having a fire department may levy a tax upon insurance companies to partial support of the department. The bill making the penalty for imprisonment when a burglar carries weapons with which life might be taken was also passed.

The Woman's Press Association.
NEW HAVEN, LA., June 11.—The Woman's National Press Association has elected as vice presidents: Mrs. Florence M. Adkinson, of Indianapolis; Mrs. L. M. Pavy, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Mary McMillen, of London, England. The members of the Association have been invited to visit Miss Clara Barton, of Danville, N. Y., in August.

TEST YOUR BAKING POWDER TO-DAY!

Brands advertised as absolutely pure

CORFAY & McCONZA.

THE TEST:

Place a can top down on a hot stove until heated, then remove the cover and smell. A chemical will not be required to detect the presence of ammonia.

DOES NOT CONTAIN AMMONIA.

ITS HEALTHFULNESS HAS NEVER BEEN QUESTIONED.

In a million homes for a quarter of a century it has stood the consumer's reliable test.

THE TEST OF THE OVEN.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.,

MAKERS OF

Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts.

The strongest, most delicious and entirely flavorless.

Dr. Price's Lupulin Yeast Gums

For Light Healthy Bread, The Best Dry Hop

For Sale by Grocers.

CHICAGO. ST. LOUIS

LANE & WORMICK.

Contractors.

ARCHITECTS AND BUILDERS.

Plans and specifications furnished on reasonable terms and all work satisfactorily and promptly done. Office on Third street, between Wall and Sutton.

MRS. ANNA PHARAZ.

NOVELTY STORE.

—Dealer in—

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS.

I have always on hand a full supply of School Books, and have just received a large assortment of new millinery goods.

AT THE PAINT STORE

—Is a fine stock of—

WALL PAPER,

CEILING DECORATIONS, and everything in the Paint line.

ALABASTINE is the best Coating for walls and ceilings; it will not rub off, and is cheaper and better than Kalsomine or Whitewash. Anyone can put it on.

ALBERT GREENWOOD,

No. 2 Zweigert's Block.

Maltby, Bentley & Co.,

—DEALERS IN—

Groceries and Liquors.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

No. 10 Market Street, Maysville, Ky.

T. J. CUMLEY,

Sanitary Plumber,

GAS & STEAM FITTER.

Curley's new system of House Drainage and Ventilation. Bath rooms fitted up with hot and cold water a specialty. Also a large supply of

Iron, Lead and Stone Pipe, Globe, Angle and Check Valve, water and Steam Gauge, Force and Lift Pumps, Rubber Hose, Chandeliers, Brackets and Globes.

Personal attention given to all work and satisfaction guaranteed.

T. J. CUMLEY,

Second street, above Market, opposite Omas Gooden's, Maysville, Ky.

J. H. BOLTON, M. D.,

Cor. Second and Station Streets,

Office open at all hours. Maysville, Ky.

HERMANN LANGE,

—The Jeweler, is receiving the latest styles of—

FINE JEWELRY,

Watches, Diamonds, Silverware, Clocks and Novelties. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. No. 43 Second street, three doors below Market, Maysville, Ky.

F. DIETRICH & SONS,

—Dealers in Home-made—

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES,

SPRING WAGONS, ETC.

Only carriage manufacturers in Maysville who sell only their own work, which is first-class in all particulars. Vehicles at LOWER PRICES than any other house in the State, when quality of work is considered.

All Work Warranted!

REPAIRING Promptly and Satisfactorily done. A large line of Carriages, Buggies, Barouches, &c., now on hand.

WE are practical Mechanics, and WILL SAVE YOU MONEY if you give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

66 and 70 East Second St.

F. DIETRICH & SONS,

—GO TO—

J. BALLENGER

—FOR—

FINE JEWELRY,

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, ETC.

Bridal and Anniversary Gifts a specialty. A large stock to select from at all times. A trial is solicited and satisfaction guaranteed.

M. DAVIS,

—"THE OLD RELIABLE"—

CLOTHIER!

Have just received an immense stock of CLOTHING, comprising Men's, Youth's and Boys' goods; also GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

HATS, CAPS, TRUNKS and VALISES,

which he will sell at PANIC PRICES. You will do well to call and see him before purchasing elsewhere.

MRS. DAVIS

M. DAVIS,

C. S. MINER & BRO.,

—ESTABLISHED 1833—DEALERS IN—

BOOTS, Leather and Findings

SHOES, MAYSVILLE, KY.

CLEARANCE SALE FOR CASH!

As trustee for A. R. BURGESS, I offer the stock of Dry Goods contained in his store, No. 20 Station Street, at greatly reduced prices. Unfinished shirts, best made, (former price $1.00, 75 cents); best finished shirts, (former price $1.50, $1.00); line of dress goods, per yard, 5 cents; many choice Dress Fabrics at cost; Woolen Underwear and Blankets at cost. Great bargains in Choice line of Cashmere at cost. All persons indebted to the said Burgess will be required to make prompt payment, as it will be my duty, as trustee, to wind up the business speedily. Am R. Burgess, as my agent, will make settlements and collections, and give receipts.

MRS. JAMES SHACKLEFORD, Trustee.

WALL PAPER!

For Beautiful designs my stock of Wall Paper is complete. Also BOOKS, STATIONERY, FANCY GOODS, GOLD PENS, PICTURE FRAMES, &c. We will take pleasure in showing our stock to all. PHOTOGRAPHICAL GALLERY in the same building.

J. T. KACKLEY,

MAYSVILLE, KY.

Headquarters For Dry Goods.

We are pleased to announce that our Spring and Summer styles for 1885 are now open for the inspection of the public. Our new stock consists of a large and varied assortment of the NEWEST and BEST in Seasonable Goods, embracing all the latest Novelties in Foreign and Domestic

DRESS GOODS!

We claim for our stock General Excellence in Quality and Style, Immense Variety and a scale of prices which will be found EXTREMELY LOW. Our stock of HOMERLY is complete in every detail, from the cheapest Cotton to the finest Silk Hose, and at prices that defy competition. In

Carpets, Oil Cloths, Window Shades,

&c., we can not be equalled, and are confident we can save you five or ten cents on every yard you purchase of us. Another thing, do not fail to see our elegant display of CURTAIN NETS and LACE CURTAINS. Elegant styles, Very large stock. Our Spring Goods are most desirable and our prices always right. OUR WHITE GOODS and LACES are well worth coming to see.

D. HUNT & SON,

Second Street, Maysville, Ky.

DR. SMITH & WARDLE,

DENTISTS,

Nitrous oxide, or laughing gas used for the painless extraction of teeth. Office on Court Street.

PAUL D. ANDERSON,

DENTIST,

No. 21 Market St., nearly opp. Central Hotel, Office Open at all Hours. MAYSVILLE, KY.